

BUSINESS TASTES BETTER AT MJ'S

We're not serious about many things. But when it comes to meetings and locally produced food, we solemnly swear that we know our stuff.

Our Farm to Table experience is a fun way of getting your hungry crew to brainstorm brilliant ideas, all while having a delicious time.

Your luscious day starts with a morning food fiesta at MJ's, where we've loaded up on freshly baked bread, various AM goodies and caffeine to get your energy levels up. Hyped and ready, it's time to have your meeting in our pretty conference room, with all the equipment you need. Lunch is served at lunch time (well duh) and off you go to local veggie farmer at Botildenborg!

This is when the real fun starts, as you get to pick your green, red, blue and yellow besties. Time for a chat and coffee break before you head back to MJ's, where your rainbow-colored friends become dinner. A sustainable, fun and delicious way of eating and socializing, we just love it.

Dinner coma? Add a sleepover at MJ's and your comfy bed awaits upstairs.
